PROPOSITION

This proposition increases the tax paid on the rents of hotel rooms from six percent (6%) to ten percent (10%) to continue until repealed. This proposition also divides all revenues generated by the tax equally between the following purposes: (1) tourism promotion, and (2) economic development. The revenues may not be used for any other purpose. The details regarding implementation of this proposition can be found in Ordinance No. 2878. Shall the proposition be approved?
